

Over the River and Through the Woods

This comedy revolves around the loving yet comical manipulation of Nick Cristiano by his four Italian-American grandparents, who try to prevent him from moving away to pursue his career. With heartfelt humor, the play explores family bonds, the generation gap, and the wisdom shared by older generations. Through their offbeat scheme, Nick learns the deep importance of family and the richness it brings to life, delivering a fun and heartwarming story that resonates across generations.
